Itinerary

Day 1

Welcome to Israel

Your journey begins the moment you land at Ben Gurion Airport. Afternoon/Evening: No orientation tour needed — just check into your Tel Aviv hotel and let the city do the rest. Spend your first evening strolling the beachfront promenade, exploring the ancient port of Jaffa, or sampling street food at the local market. Tel Aviv runs 24 hours; there's no wrong way to start. Overnight: Tel Aviv.

Day 2

Nazareth, Capernaum and Sea of Galilee

Morning: Coastal drive north through the Sharon plain. View the Valley of Armageddon from Megiddo — one of the most strategically important passes in the ancient world. Visit Nazareth's Church of the Annunciation and Church of St. Joseph, then continue to Cana, where the wedding miracle is commemorated. Afternoon: Stand on the Mount of Beatitudes, where the Sermon on the Mount was delivered, overlooking the Sea of Galilee. Explore Capernaum — Jesus's adopted hometown on the lakeshore — and the C

Day 3

Caesarea, Acre and Rosh HaNikra

Morning: Visit Caesarea — Herod the Great's magnificent Roman port, built in just 12 years. Walk its ancient theater, hippodrome, and palace ruins overlooking the Mediterranean. Continue to Haifa to view the Baha'i Gardens cascading down Mount Carmel. Afternoon: Explore the white chalk sea caves of Rosh HaNikra, carved by the sea at the Lebanese border. End the day in Acre (Akko), where Crusader halls buried for 700 years now open to visitors — including the fortress prison that once held Jewish

Day 4

Golan Heights

Morning: Drive through the Valley of Armageddon to the Golan Heights. Soak at the Roman hot springs of Hamat Gader. Visit the Shalom Observatory for sweeping views over the entire Sea of Galilee. Explore the excavated Talmudic village of Katzrin and the Golan Antiquities Museum. Afternoon: Ascend Mount Bental — where Syrian trenches and bunkers from the 1967 Six Day War still stand exactly as they were left, with views into Syria. Visit a local winery for a tasting of the region's renowned wines

Day 5

Northern Galilee

Morning: Start with a kibbutz tour to understand the unique communal lifestyle that shaped modern Israel. Explore Banias (Caesarea Philippi), the ancient Roman city dedicated to Pan, surrounded by forests, rushing streams, and waterfalls fed by Mount Hermon's snowmelt. Afternoon: Visit Nimrod Fortress, a 13th-century Crusader castle perched on a ridge with panoramic Golan views. Lunch at a Druze restaurant in the village of Majdal Shams — the mezze alone is worth the drive. End the day in Safed

Day 6

Masada and the Dead Sea

Morning: Drive through the Judean Hills, descending to the lowest point on earth. Visit Masada — Herod's mountaintop palace fortress where 960 Jewish rebels chose death over Roman slavery in 73 CE. Ride the cable car up to explore the palaces, bathhouse, and storerooms. Stop at Ein Gedi, a lush desert oasis with waterfalls, and Qumran, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered in 1947. Afternoon: Float in the mineral-rich waters of the Dead Sea — 430 metres below sea level, your body naturally

Day 7

Bethlehem, Jericho and Qasr el Yahud

Morning: Descend to Jericho — the oldest continuously inhabited city on earth (10,000 years). Walk past Joshua's ancient city walls and view the Mount of Temptation. Visit Qasr al-Yahud on the Jordan River, the traditional site of Jesus's baptism by John the Baptist. Afternoon: Cross into Bethlehem. Enter Manger Square and descend into the Holy Grotto beneath the Church of the Nativity — the exact spot where Jesus is believed to have been born. Visit the Church of St. Catherine and Shepherds' Fi

Day 8

Free Day in Jerusalem

Full leisure day in Jerusalem. Today is yours to spend exactly as you choose. Options include: exploring the alleyways of the Old City bazaar, shopping at Machane Yehuda Market for the best street food in the Middle East, browsing Mamilla Mall, or walking to Ein Kerem — Jerusalem's village-within-a-city — for lunch in a garden restaurant. Art and history lovers can dedicate the morning to the Israel Museum and the Shrine of the Book, where the original Dead Sea Scrolls are displayed. Overnight:

Day 9

Jerusalem Old City Tour

Morning: Begin with panoramic views from Mount Scopus. Enter the Old City through Zion Gate, walk through the Armenian Quarter into the Jewish Quarter, where the Byzantine Cardo — a Roman-era colonnaded street — lies partially excavated beneath your feet. In the Muslim Quarter, follow the Via Dolorosa to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, built on the site of the crucifixion and burial of Jesus. Touch the Western Wall, Judaism's holiest prayer site. Afternoon: Visit the Garden of Gethsemane and t

Day 10

Departure Day

Morning: Check-out by 11:00. One last morning to fill however you want — return to the Western Wall at dawn when it's quiet, pick up olive-wood souvenirs in the Old City, enjoy a long breakfast at a Mahane Yehuda café, or simply walk through a neighbourhood you haven't seen yet. Transfer to Ben Gurion Airport when ready. Safe travels.
